

Join NEOCH's Radically Inclusive Community.

This spring, engage with a cohort of advocates to learn, grow and work to end homelessness.

What does Radically Inclusive Community create?

- An opportunity to contribute to NEOCH's work to end homelessness in our community
- A chance to deepen your understanding of the root causes of homelessness, poverty and housing justice.
- Connection to other people who care
- An investment in you as a leader

Who is this program for?

- NEOCH volunteers
- Supporters of NEOCH's mission
- Students and future NEOCH interns
- Organizers interested in housing justice

What are you committing to?

- Engaging in weekly virtual discussions, missing no more than two. (1.5-2 hr./week)
- Completing a grassroots fundraising campaign. (avg. 1.5 hours per week)
- Meeting schedule TBA, based on participant availability. Program runs nine weeks, between March 20-May 24.

Is there a cost to the program?

No, we do not ask you to pay anything out of pocket. We ask that you participate in the grassroots fundraising campaign to pay it forward to keep our education and volunteer programming running.

What are the components of the program?

1. Volunteer support and engagement
 - a. Check in about volunteer projects you're currently working on
 - b. Suggest new volunteer projects
 - c. Learn about upcoming events and activities you can opt into
2. Interactive political education
 - a. New recommended reading/listening materials each week
 - b. Weekly discussions and activities on readings
 - c. Updates on NEOCH's regular education opportunities
3. Grassroots fundraising campaign
 - a. Gain an understanding of fundraising as organizing and relationship building
 - b. Support NEOCH's work to end homelessness
 - c. Build skills to raise money for causes you care about
