

JOIN NEOCH'S

RADICALLY INCLUSIVE COMMUNITY

This summer, engage with a cohort of advocates to learn, grow and work to end homelessness.

WHAT DOES RIC CREATE?

An opportunity to contribute to NEOCH's work to end homelessness in our community.
A chance to deepen your understanding of housing justice & the root causes of poverty.
Connection with other people who care.
An investment in you as a leader.

WHO IS THIS PROGRAM FOR?

NEOCH volunteers
Supporters of NEOCH's mission
Students & future NEOCH interns
Organizers interested in housing justice

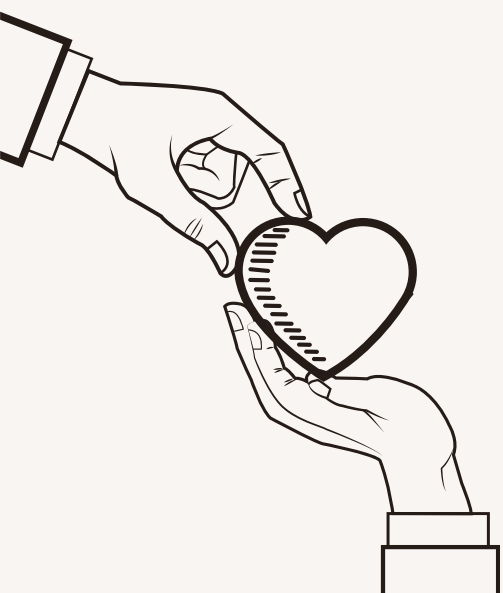

WHAT ARE YOU COMMITTING TO?

Engaging in weekly virtual discussions, missing no more than two 1.5-2 hr./week
Completing a grassroots fundraising campaign avg. 1.5 hr./week
Meeting schedule TBA, based on participant availability. Program runs nine weeks, between July 16-Sept. 16.

IS THERE A COST TO THE PROGRAM?

No, we do not ask you to pay anything out of pocket. Participants pay it forward by completing a grassroots fundraising campaign. You'll build organizing skills while raising money to support future RIC members' participation.

WHAT ARE THE COMPONENTS OF THE RIC PROGRAM?

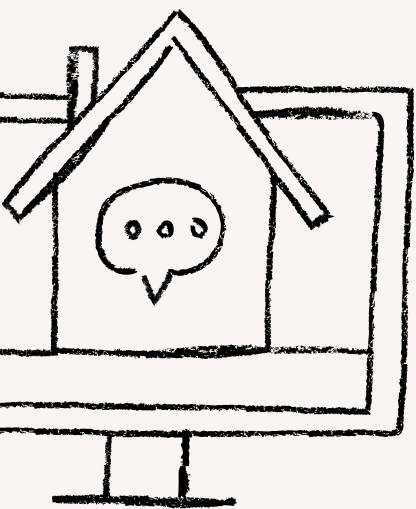

VOLUNTEER SUPPORT AND ENGAGEMENT

Check in about volunteer projects you're currently working on
Suggest new volunteer projects
Learn about upcoming events and activities you can opt into

INTERACTIVE EDUCATION

New recommended reading or listening materials each week
Weekly discussions and activities
Updates on NEOCH's regular education opportunities

GRASSROOTS FUND-RAISING CAMPAIGN

Gain an understanding of fundraising as organizing and relationship building
Support NEOCH's work to end homelessness
Build skills to raise money for causes you care about

APPLICATIONS OPEN
NOW THROUGH JULY 1
CONTACT EMRYS MCCRIGHT WITH QUESTIONS: MCCRIGHT@NEOCH.ORG